

Call for Nominations

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Staff Awards

Do you know someone working in the Division of Academic Affairs who is making a distinguished contribution to Texas A&M University through dedication, initiative, outstanding achievements, enthusiasm, and attitude in his or her work?

If so, nominate him or her for the Academic Affairs Tradition of Excellence Staff Awards. Nomination forms are available from the Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost (845-4016) or online at www.tamu.edu/provost/.

Reward and Recognition

- ❖ Up to six awardees will each receive a $500 cash reward and a framed certificate of recognition at the Academic Affairs General Meeting and Awards Ceremony, set for 3:00 p.m., Thursday, April 17, 2008.

Who is Eligible?

- ❖ Nominees must be staff who are employed at least 50% time and have a minimum of two years of service within the Division of Academic Affairs.
- ❖ Employees with job designations of director or its variations (assistant director, associate director, etc.) and below are eligible to be nominated for the Tradition of Excellence Award.
- ❖ Personnel holding faculty titles are not eligible for nomination.

Deadline for Nominations is 5:00 p.m., Monday, February 18, 2008.