

Contents

Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Preface	xv
PART I: The Untold Truth
Chapter 1. Omission	3
Chapter 2. Fateful Decision	7
Chapter 3. Struggle for Sulfur Island	38
Chapter 4. Price of a Runway	92
Chapter 5. Lessons	123
PART II: The Immortal Icon
Chapter 6. Making Heroes into Legends	129
Chapter 7. Iwo Jima Saves the Corps	157
Chapter 8. The Ghosts of Iwo Jima	189
Postscript to Iwo by Joseph Auslander	197
Notes	205
Bibliography	249
Index	255

Illustrations

Maps

Army/Navy division of the Pacific Theater, 1942	15
Joint Chiefs of Staff Pacific strategy, March 1944	22
Japanese defense sectors on Iwo Jima	50

Figures

Hierarchy of JCS planning organizations	20
Pacific chain of command during Operation Detachment	59
Proposed organization of the unified armed forces, 1944	159

Photographs

First waves of LCVPs circle the waters	60
Third and fourth waves head toward the beach	61
Fifth Division hits the beach on D-Day, 19 February 1945	62
Initial assault force crosses over the beach and moves inland	63
Carnage near the surf due to both enemy indirect fire and fierce waves	65
Wrecked vehicles, ships, and tractors churn in the surf	66
Logistics teams at the shoreline	69
Effects of Japanese mortars and artillery on rear area	70
Marines use flamethrowers on a Japanese pillbox	72
One of the many massive concrete fortifications on Iwo Jima	77
Marines use a hot pipe from a sulfur vent to heat up coffee	78
Medical personnel disinfect American dead	82
A group of dead Japanese in the open	87
A rifle and helmet combination mark the spot of a fallen friend	88
White Marines and black Marines work to bury dead	89
A Marine helps his wounded comrade reach medical treatment	90
The first B-29 Superfortress landing on Iwo Jima	94

Joe Rosenthal's famous photograph of the second flag raised atop Mount Suribachi	134
The original flag is seen being lowered as the second one goes up	135
Hayes, Gagnon, and Bradley raise the flag over the Capitol	143
The flag-raisers give their first press conference	145
President George W. Bush unveils the new flag-raising stamp	195

Tables

Table 1. U.S. and Japanese Casualties Resulting from Operation Detachment	83
Table 2. Statistical Comparison of Island Battles in World War II	84
Table 3. Justifications Given for Operation Detachment	96
Table 4. Air-Sea Rescue Operations, 1944–45	103
Table 5. Missions Launched from the Marianas, 4–24 March 1945	110
Table 6. Casualty Comparison Produced for the President, 11 July 1945	120