

Contents

Preface	IX
Introduction	3
Sol Naciente : YOUTH	13
1. Urban Renewal on the Hometown Block in Edinburg	15
2. South Padre, Isla del Padre Ballí	27
3. Largest Texas Shrine: La Virgen de San Juan del Valle	33
4. The Texas State Aquarium in Corpus Christi	43
5. Solo: Chicago, Austin, London, Buffalo, Berkeley	51
Sol Ardiente : PARENTHOOD	69
6. Voices, Desires Being Wishful	71
7. Education: First Priority	83
8. Puerto Rico or Houston: The Caribbean or the Gulf?	85
9. Apples after School, and the Alamo	90
10. Harvard Visit	99
11. Fishing at the Point in Seabrook	104
12. An Aztec Reverie	110
13. Mi Tierra in San Antonio	116
14. Indian Trails and the Texas A&M/UT Presidential Corridor	120
15. Among Mullets, One Galveston Summer	123
16. Disney World Florida Trip	128
17. The Rain-Blessed Mountains of Costa Rica	132
18. Projecting Consciousness in Maximum Security	136
19. Evoking Rimsky-Korsakov on the Eve of a Move	142
20. Leaving the NASA Johnson Space Center Neighbors	147
21. Rio Grande Valley Meditation	150
22. Showdown across the Border in Reynosa	158

Sol Radiante : PUBLIC POLICY ISSUES	167
23. On Seeing Giant , after Avoiding the Film Many Years	169
24. Words for Better Lives	174
25. Reinventing Ourselves	176
26. Race Should Not Matter	180
27. Affirmative Action: Still the Best Idea	182
28. Diversity Is Natural	187
29. On the Theory of Bilingual Education	190
30. Latin America and the United States and Mexico	195
31. Heat, Undocumented Workers, and the Border Patrol	198
32. Luis Alfonso Torres, the Mexican Rodney King	204
33. NAFTA and the Maquiladora Babies	207
34. A Realization and a Memory in Southmost Texas	215
35. Latino Voting and Election Promises	223
36. Batos Locos	229
37. El Día de los Muertos in the United States	231
38. Regarding a Mexican American Holiday	234
39. War in Iraq	237
40. Thanksgiving Idyll	240
41. The Idea of a Mexican American/Latino Exhibit: One Christmas Eve, First of the New Century	242
42. A New Language	244
43. Year-End Thoughts	247
44. What Latinos Want	251